Path to Graduation Grant

The following information outlines the eligibility requirements and conditions for South University's Path to Graduation Grant. The purpose of the grant is to reward students for continuous full-time enrollment. The grant amount is equal to the cost of one credit hour per quarter.. All requirements are student-driven, and are not subject to a committee. Students attending South University via a teach out or transfer agreement will not be eligible for this offering. (Nursing – RN to Bachelor of Science in Nursing is not eligible for this grant).

Eligibility Requirements:

1. For students currently being charged the new tuition rates that commenced on or after 10/24/2023.
2. Must meet the required South University admission criteria for an undergraduate program as outlined in the South University Academic Catalog and be accepted for admission into the undergraduate program of choice.
3. Requires continuous full-time enrollment for two consecutive quarters earning the grant in the subsequent quarter.
4. Grant amount is equal to the cost of one credit (Cost per credit varies by program. It will be equal to the cost per credit for your program which is either $412/$437/ $484/ $617 per quarter.
5. To continue receiving the grant, students must maintain at least a full-time enrollment level without a break in enrollment (unless required by your cohort or program of study). Any break in enrollment, would reset the continuous clock and requires two additional consecutive quarters of enrollment upon re-entry to begin receiving the grant.
6. Student must have the signed Memorandum of Understanding on file prior to receiving the first disbursement.

Additional Conditions:

1. This merit-based grant can be combined with other university institutional grants and scholarships, except for the Freshman Grant.
2. Cannot be combined with the tiered tuition program, or corporate partnership special tuition rates (i.e. CEP).
3. This Path to Graduation Grant is used for tuition and fees only and may not result in a stipend to the student.

General Conditions:

1. South University reserves the right to cancel, suspend and/or modify this Grant or any part of it. South University will provide a 30-day notice to all students if changes are made to this grant's eligibility requirements or monetary value.
2. South University, in its sole discretion, reserves the right to disqualify any eligible student who is in violation of student responsibilities as outlined in the South University Academic Catalog and Student Handbook.
3. Must not be employees or family members of employees of South University participating in the South University Tuition Voucher Program.
4. Quarter is defined as a student's parent term (i.e. 10-week term).

Limited Liability:

1. South University is not responsible for:
 - a. Any incorrect or inaccurate information whether caused by the student, printing typographical or other errors or by any of the equipment or programming associated with or utilized in this Grant.
 - b. Printing, typographical, technical, computer, network or human error which may occur in the administration of this Grant, the uploading, the processing or the announcement of this Grant or in any Grant-related materials.
2. Disputes: Except where prohibited, eligible students agree that all disputes, claims and causes of action arising out of or connected with this Grant program shall be resolved individually, through the Student Affairs Department at South University.
