

DISABILITY SERVICES

South University provides accommodations to qualified students with disabilities. The Disability Services Coordinator assists qualified students with disabilities in acquiring reasonable and appropriate accommodations and in supporting their success.

South University is committed to providing qualified students with a disability an equal opportunity to access the benefits, rights and privileges of college services, programs and activities in compliance with The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

Students who believe they are in need of accommodations should contact The Student Affairs Department for additional information. If you have a concern or complaint related to disability services, please contact the Dean of Student Affairs. All complaints will be handled in accordance with The South University Student Grievance Procedure for Internal Complaints of Discrimination and Harassment published in the Academic Catalog.
