A digital textbook will be provided for applicable courses and will be automatically secured through South university's contracted third-party vendor. The student cost for digital textbooks will be charged to the student account in addition to tuition. The student cost is $15 per credit hour. For the Doctorate of Ministry program, the student cost is $400 per quarter for the first six (6) quarters for a customized South University Logos package. The customized South University Logos package is not refundable on or after the first day of classes. For students opting out of the digital textbook, the associated charge will be reversed on the student account after the Drop/Add Period. Not all courses include a Digital Textbook. Courses that include a Digital Textbook will be noted in the registration material. Students who do not opt out will not need to purchase print textbooks for courses using a Digital Textbook. The purchase of the Digital Textbook is not refundable. Students who do opt out will be responsible for purchasing the required textbook. If a course does not use a Digital Textbook, the student is responsible for purchasing the required textbook.

* Additional fees may be charged for testing or certification required for certain programs. Certain programs will have additional charges for background checks, fingerprinting, professional instruments, memberships to industry associations, entrance exam, practicum evaluation fees, materials and supplies, etc. All additional program costs are contained with the digital application that students review and sign prior to be able to complete an Enrollment Agreement.

The Doctor of Pharmacy program has a $50 application fee charged by PharmCas included in the Program Fees and a $500 non-refundable acceptance fee excluded from the Approx. Total Cost. The acceptance fee will be applied to the student's first quarter tuition payment. If an applicant accepted into the Pharmacy program encounters circumstances that prevent their matriculation, any amount paid by the applicant that is above the nonrefundable application fee and acceptance fee will be refunded.
